

2019 Sesquicentennial Art Contest Winners

PreK-2nd grade

1st place – Entry 1, Amrie Wittmer, photo, Yellow Kitty

2nd place - Entry 61, Addie Schirm, acrylic painting, Monsters

3rd place – Entry 62, Addie Schirm, acrylic painting, Snowy Day

3rd-5th grade

1st place – Entry 31, Lauren Voss, mixed media, Lauren’s Fantasy

2nd place – Entry 57, Zander Weber, photo, Mantis

3rd place – Entry 60, Evan Miller, colored pencil, Pony

6th-8th grade

1st place – Entry 59, Aleric Weber, photo, Farmhouse Barn

2nd place – Entry 64, Athena McCauslin, colored pencil & ink, Ballerina on a Shelf

3rd place – Entry 63, Kylie Worthen, mixed media, Flowers

9th-12th grade

1st place – Entry 23, Tawny Hess, digital art, Scarlet Macaw

2nd place – Entry 24, Tawny Hess, digital art, Orchid

3rd place – Entry 67, Elizabeth Smith, oil painting, Face of a Woman

Adult

1st place – Entry 29, Barb Campbell, colored pencil, Power Jet

2nd place – Entry 16, Olivia Stark, mixed media, 150 Years

3rd place – Entry 30, Barb Campbell, pencil, Bird’s Eye View

Honorable Mention – Entry 55, Kim Fischels, acrylic, The Path Less Traveled

Thank you to all of the participants! The Wall Dogs who judged the contest commented on how many great local artists we have!